Here's to you, Mr. Young Isn't this the best year ever?

Dedication

Rick Young has been District Vocational Director at the Golden Triangle campus for six years and was Assistant Director for six years. He began his employment with EMCC as a marketing teacher in 1974.

The Lion dedicates this year to you, Mr. Young, for your dedication to our school. You have proven yourself as a successful leader, and we appreciate you!*

Roaring to Get the Most Out of Life

Believe me when I tell you, Mrs. Hull, my dog did eat my term paper.

Too much partying the night before, Mrs. Cherry?

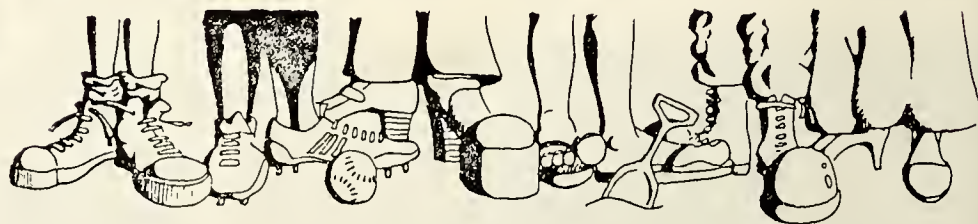

Mr. Ken Campbell, security guard, shows us how many chances we get to mess up before he does something about it.

Doesn't Danielle favor "Little Orphan Annie" – without the curls?

I've just got this little bug in my ear – and he won't come out!

Livin' It Up at the "Mane" Campus

This is a true portrait of what happens when you accidentally press the delete button on your computer.

I'm telling you, my muscles are bigger than yours!

Helping one another is one of the many ways our college generates friendship and kindness.

Kristy, did you say you were born in the 1970's or that you're living in the 1970's?

The "Stylin" group — it doesn't get any better than this.

Lions Savor The Victory

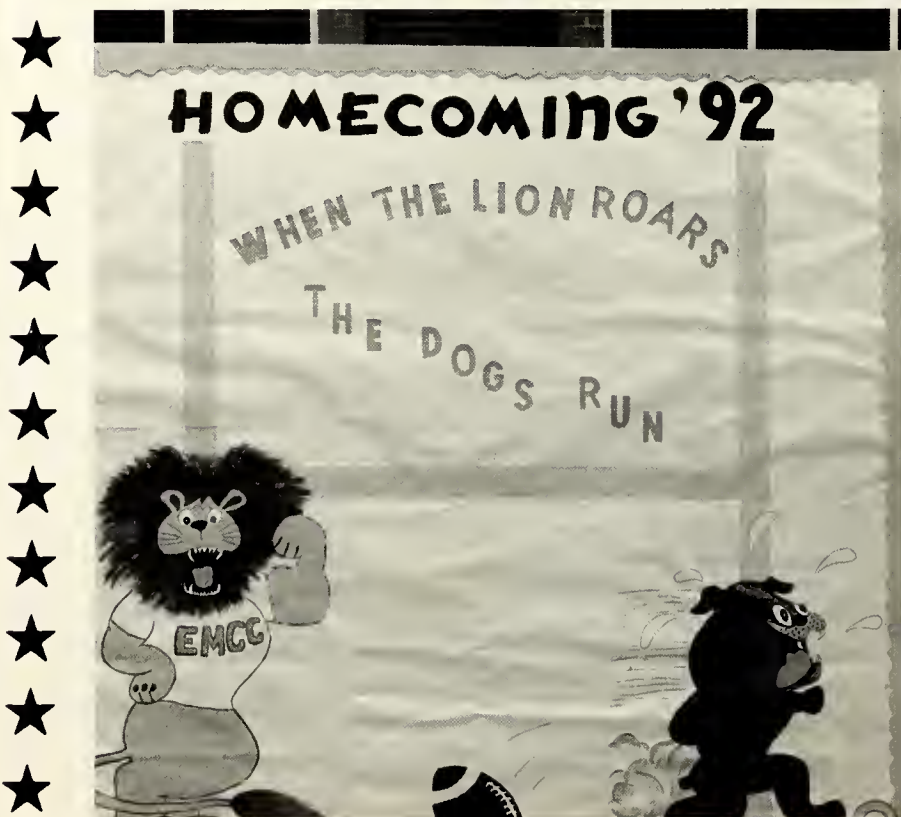

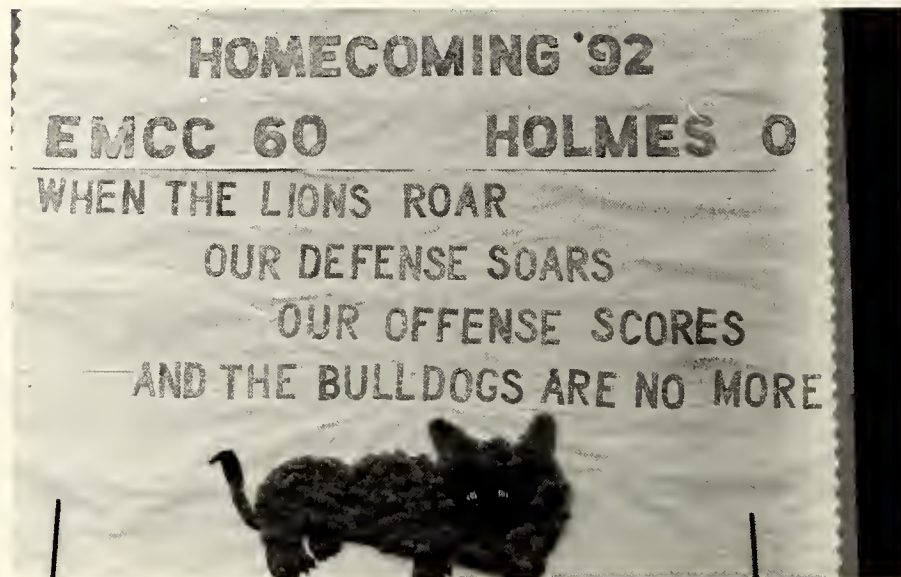

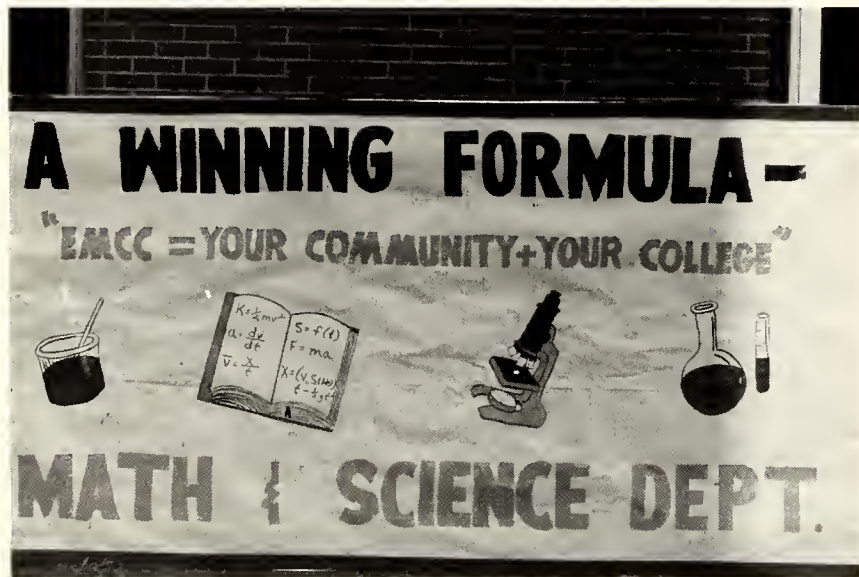

Making the "Write" Choice

The first and second place positions, for the most creative Homecoming banner, was shared by a combination of both the Reflections group and Music Theatre Workshop. Congratulations!

The Lions surely did roar with their Homecoming victory of 41-28 over the Holmes bulldogs. Great job, guys!

ORGANIZATIONS

BSU/Wesley Foundation

The purpose of the Baptist Student Union and the Wesley Foundation is to provide an atmosphere of Christian fun and fellowship. Setting aside all denominational barriers, they provide a place where anyone can come and join in Christ's name. It also provides an opportunity for students to keep in touch with their home churches. During the year, these two groups are involved in many activities. Some activities include the following: having speakers come and teach Bible studies, having outings such as bowling and eating pizza, and sometimes having fundraisers to help raise money for needy people within their churches.

The Collegian

"The Collegian" is the official East Mississippi Community College student newspaper. Its purpose here at EMCC is to make known current events and other information such as: athletic activities, organizational activities, and other programs that involve our college. "The Collegian" is circulated monthly to all campuses and centers serving EMCC.

Royce Chatman — Collegian Editor and Dr. Conrad DiMichele — Collegian Advisor.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

"The Fellowship of Christian Athletes exists to present to athletes, coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord, and serving him in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church." (quote — Coach Roger Carr) This group of athletes meets on a regular basis to review Bible lessons as they share their thoughts and comments with one another in Christian fellowship. Reading and studying God's word challenges those attending to present themselves in a Christian way, lead a Christian life, and help others in time of need. "It is a tremendous help in facing life's problems." "It also gives a chance and strength to have a positive influence on their teammates' lives." (quote — Coach Tom Goode) In short, the F.C.A. is a widely known organization, put together for the purpose of bringing Christian athletes and others closer to God.

John Rice tries to explain to everyone that in order to get a group picture made, you have to "group" together.

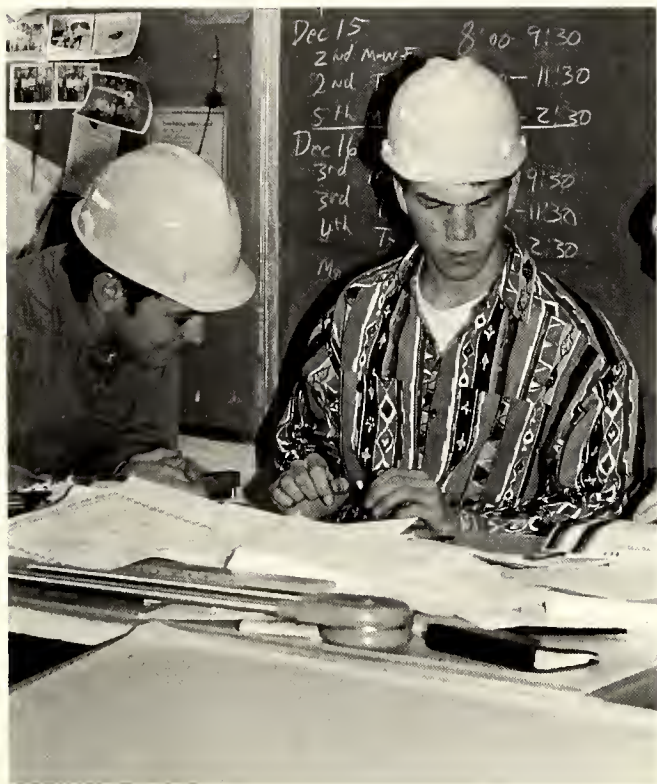

The Forestry Club

The Forestry Club is an organization composed of students involved in the study of forestry. This organization is designed and created to promote the development of forestry in the economic world today. It also helps to reflect the attitudes, expectations, and development of those individuals who plan to make forestry their life-long career. Being a member of the forestry club can also teach others that nature is a part of God's creation, and there must be people willing to save and preserve those forestry products still alive, and properly dispose of those that are not.

The Gospel Choir

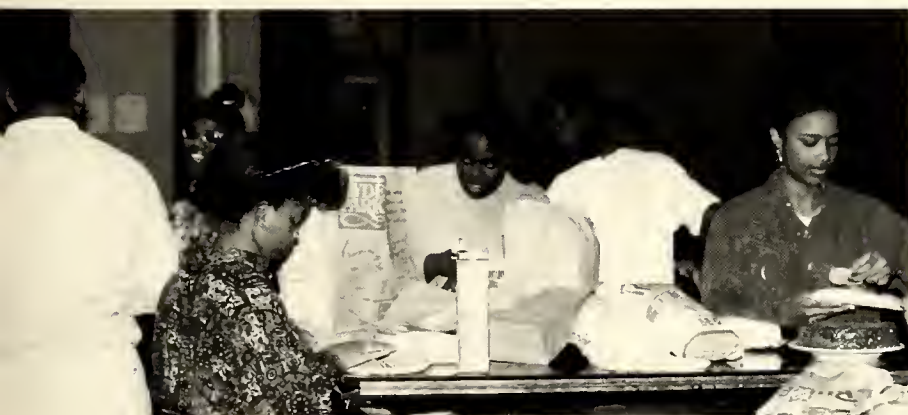

The Gospel Choir — officially formed in 1990 — is designed to provide interested students with some form of activity on campus. The 1992-93 Gospel Choir consists of approximately twenty-five members and is open to all interested. This choir provides entertainment for several different programs as EMCC, but their biggest event takes place during Black History month. In this month, the Gospel Choir sponsors a black history program for the students of EMCC and surrounding areas. The Gospel Choir, through their singing, also helps bring the fellowship of students closer to God and others.

EMCC Choir &

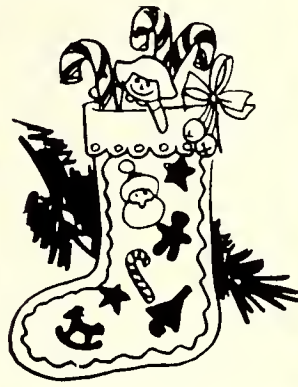

The EMCC Choir and Music Theatre Workshop are a combination of students that take an interest in music and music production. Every year around Christmas, these two groups perform what is known as "Santa's Frosty Follies". The production includes several scenes of Christmas joy such as "Frosty the Snowman", "Santa Claus Parade", "Rudolph", and others. "Santa's Frosty Follies" is performed for surrounding areas as well as EMCC student body, faculty, staff, and administration. This 1992-93 season marks the fifth annual performance, and is in the process of gathering students for next year's performance.

The Ophthalmic Club

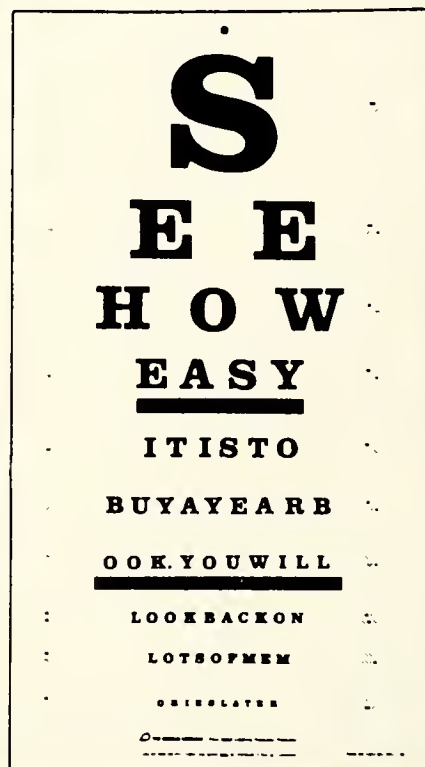

The Ophthalmic Club consists of a group of ophthalmic career oriented students and is formed to support and enhance the development of the students' career outlook. The objective of this club is to represent ideas and to understand the optometry field, as well as create fellowship among members. Through this organization, students also learn to be competitive in a wide variety of activities and trades. Any student majoring in the ophthalmic field is eligible for membership.

Members—L to R—Mike Burten, Catherine Walton, Brian Pickens, Kim Irwing, Randy McCoy, Sherry Windham, Douglas McCoy, Bert Jones, Jennifer Malone, Bruce Druey, and Advisor—Mr. James Hancock.

Officers—L to R—Catherine Walton—President, Kim Irwing—Vice-President, Sherry Windham—Secretary/Treasurer, and Randy McCoy—Reporter.

Mike, is this what happens when you don't take good care of your eyes?

Bert, Catherine, add Mike, hard at work, understand the importance of good eyesight.

Randy McCoy takes his future seriously; here he is perfecting the practice of ophthalmic dispensing.

Phi Beta Lambda is a national association of college students pursuing careers in business and business education. PBL's mission is to bring together business and education and provide experiences that develop leadership skills and self confidence.

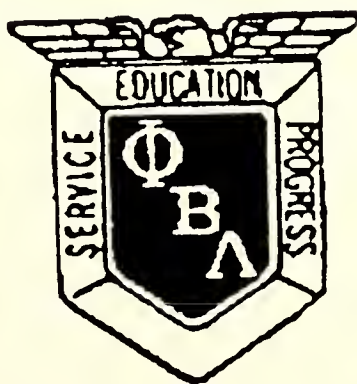

Officers (l to r): Jackie Ellis – Reporter, Veronica Scott – Secretary/Treasurer, Audrey Dixon – Vice-President and Donna Mitchell – President.

Tango, do you really like my hair? It's a new style.

My work is almost done!

Donna shows Arlando and Sandra how enthusiastic she is to be a Phi Beta Lambda member.

Phi Theta Kappa

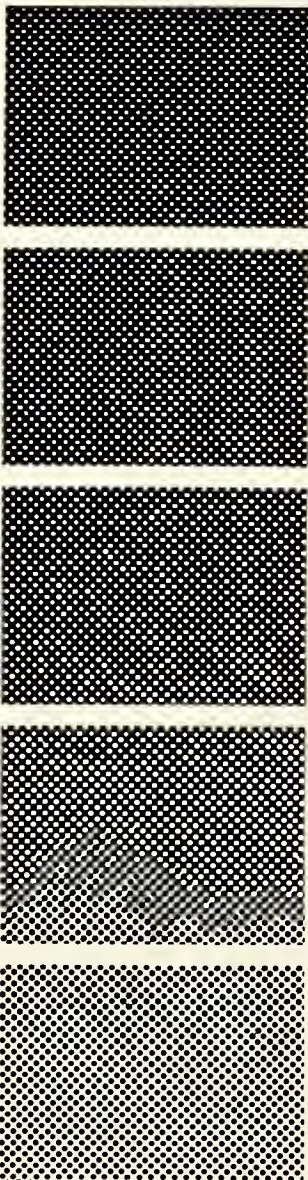

Phi Theta Kappa, which is advised by Mrs. Betty Killebrew and Mrs. Lucy Hull, is the only internationally recognized society for American community and junior colleges. Membership is conferred on those students who have established academic excellence, good moral character, and qualities of good citizenship, as judged by the faculty. The purposes of Phi Theta Kappa are the promotion of scholarships, the development of leadership, and the cultivation of fellowship among students of community and junior colleges.

The Reflections are a small select vocal/instrumental ensemble of talented college students who perform a variety of musical styles on and off campus throughout the six-county district served by East Mississippi Community College. This versatile group provides music for all ages and musical tastes with a repertoire ranging from pop to country and contemporary "classics" to rock 'n' roll.

REFLECTIONS

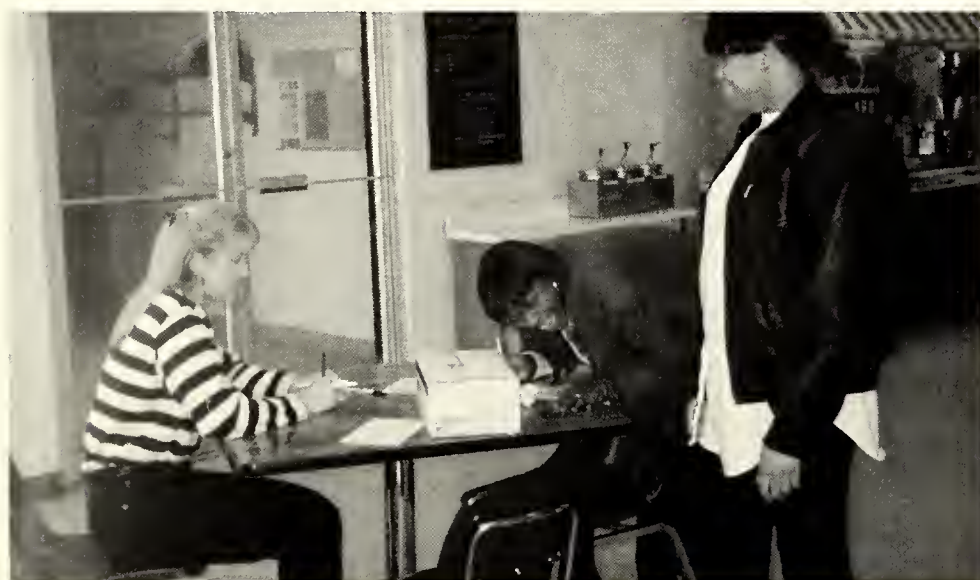

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is a small group of students interested in making changes to help our school. This group consists of a mixture of freshmen and sophomores designated to represent the student body on important issues. It is also created to take an active role in the expenditures of student activity funds, to conduct student elections (such as Mr. & Miss EMCC), to approve or disapprove suggestions on policy changes, and to present approved suggestions and ideas to the Administration of the college.

Officers: Brandi West—President, Tom Holliday—Vice-President, and Schwann Daniels—Secretary/Treasurer.
